

Upcoming Continuing Education Seminars with Mark. R. Reinhart

Course Topic: Tuning the Instrument – Neurological Qigong for a Harmonized System

Presenter: Join Mark R. Reinhart as he presents his unique approach to awakening and restoring optimal neurological function. These practices can enhance your daily activities and deepen your meditation practice.

Program Description: As children, we spent our days playing, running, engaging in all sorts of activities and adventures that entailed using all aspects of our bodies. But as we age, we tend to engage in far fewer activities and therefore many of our abilities begin to diminish. This can result in many of our neurological connections to, in effect, become stale. It's not that we can't perform these tasks, it's that our bodies have simply forgotten how to perform them.

The workshop will consist of lecture/discussion, exercises, and Qigong sets designed specifically to reconnect and enhance neurological health and activities.
